LAW IN A FREE SOCIETY

The Law in a Free Society interdisciplinary civic education curriculum is based on the eight concepts of Authority, Privacy, Justice, Responsibility, Participation, Property, Diversity and Freedom. The approach stresses the development of analytical and evaluative skills, which will enable students to apply basic substantive knowledge to a wide variety of situations.

The Law in a Free Society multimedia instructional units are designed to progress sequentially in scope and complexity through six levels from Level I for kindergarten/grade 1 to Level VI for grades 10-12. These units can be successfully integrated into social studies and humanities curricula at all levels. Units are presently available on the concepts of Authority, Privacy, Justice and Responsibility.

The Multimedia units include the motivational sound-color filmstrip stories described below, thirty student nonconsumable books, and a teacher's edition. Law in a Free Society kits and materials may be previewed or purchased from: Center for Civic Education/Law in a Free Society.

AUTHORITY

Multimedia Kits:

Zeef and Zerbon (Level I, K-1) $110.00 (also available in Spanish, $90.00)
The people in the fairy-tale kingdom of Zeef overthrow their selfish king. At first they rejoice in not having any established authority, but chaos soon results.

Bubble Trouble (Level II, 2-3) $110.00 (also available in Spanish, $100.00)
The Bubble Land people must lose weight to keep their bubble from crashing into earth. They appoint the Great Bearded Bubble Head as ruler of the land and he does indeed make some wise decisions; but power goes to his head and the people are faced with a new dilemma.

Goodnight Columbus (Level III, 4-5) $125.00.
Chris has "one of those days" where he seems to run into a restrictive rule at every turn. He escapes to dreamland where no rules or people in authority exist. But a dreamland without rules isn't what it's cracked up to be. His attempts to remedy the situation turn the dream into a nightmare.

Videotape Series: The project has developed a five-part videotaped series of programs on the concept of Authority for use in Grades 3 to 6. The series contains one teacher training program of thirty minutes and four classroom programs of fifteen minutes each. It is designed to be used with the printed materials from the Level III multimedia instructional unit on Authority. Programs are available on 1/2" VHS, 1/2" Beta II, and 3/4" U-Matic cassettes. Prices include one student book and one teacher's edition. Additional student books are prices at $27.00 for a package of ten (48 pp.) and teacher's editions are $8.00 each (82 pp.)

VHS $150.00
BETA $175.00
3/4" $210.00

JUSTICE:

Multimedia Kits:

Fair Bears (Level I, K-1) $110.00.
Must a bear always be fair? That question pops up time and again at a picnic shared by three families of bears. In the course of answering the question, students are introduced to ways of examining questions of distributive, corrective and procedural justice.

Sara's New Job (Level II, 2-3) $110.00.
Sara is a leprechaun who is given a new job. She is to find instances of injustice in the world and use her special dust to correct them. Unfortunately, she often over-corrects and thus creates new problems.

Custis Finds Justice (Level III, 4-5) $125.00.
Sheriff Custis brings order to an old western town, but he doesn't always act fairly in deciding who gets what in his community, or in righting wrongs, or in finding things out and making decisions.

PRIVACY:

Multimedia Kits:

Jessica Fish (Level I, K-1) $110.00 (also available in Spanish, $90.00).
Privacy may be a large word for a little fish, but Jessica discovers that privacy is what she craves. She is allowed to leave her school of fish for a secret grotto a short time each day. Jessica shares the location of her grotto with a friendly worm who is faced with the dilemma of whether to divulge his friend's secret when danger lurks in the deep.

Elephant King (Level II, 2-3) $110.00 (also available in Spanish, $100.00).
Different cultures view the need for privacy in different ways. This is the message in this tale of a young Indian elephant herder who befriends a wise hermit and must learn to decide between the competing values of community safety and vows of secrecy.

Marvin the Marvelous (Level III, 4-5) $125.00.
Young Marvin is a wonderful cartoonist who draws a comic strip about the heroic Marvin the Marvelous. Unfortunately, his loving family live in a crowded urban apartment that leaves little room for the privacy he needs to develop his talent. His troubles are compounded by the arrival of his grandmother. However, common creative interests bridge the generation gap as they work together to ensure the privacy space they both require.

RESPONSIBILITY:

Multimedia Kits:

The Squirrel Tree (Level I, K-1) $110.00.
Freddie and Susie Squirrel are introduced to the world beyond their snug tree home - and some of the responsibilities of life - in this story of an old-fashioned squirrel family. Constantly testing the waters they face unexpected dangers which help them examine choices involving responsibility.

The Zookeeper (Level II, 2-3) $110.00.
Everyone - including the animals - could tell that Martin, the new zookeeper, was goofing off on the job. The animals hold a meeting and decide to show him the error of his ways. He's a quick learner, and soon finds that at every step of his rising career there are new choices to make about responsibilities, and new enjoyment of the fruits of his labor. The negligence of his replacement teaches yet another lesson about responsibility.

Sharon Snoop (Level III, 4-5) $125.00.
Sharon's dream is to be a great detective like her idol Sherlock Holmes. With the aid of her trusty bloodhound Watson, she scours the neighborhood to hone her skills. She finds herself facing a dilemma when she has to choose between keeping a solemn promise to her friends and rescuing a lost child. The plot thickens when a young bully accidentally sets fire to the friend's clubhouse and blame has to be assigned.

JUSTICE:

Multimedia Kits:

Fair Bears (Level I, K-1) $110.00.
Must a bear always be fair? That question pops up time and again at a picnic shared by three families of bears. In the course of answering the question, students are introduced to ways of examining questions of distributive, corrective and procedural justice.

Sara's New Job (Level II, 2-3) $110.00.
Sara is a leprechaun who is given a new job. She is to find instances of injustice in the world and use her special dust to correct them. Unfortunately, she often over-corrects and thus creates new problems.

Custis Finds Justice (Level III, 4-5) $125.00.
Sheriff Custis brings order to an old western town, but he doesn't always act fairly in deciding who gets what in his community, or in righting wrongs, or in finding things out and making decisions.

PRIVACY:

Multimedia Kits:

Jessica Fish (Level I, K-1) $110.00 (also available in Spanish, $90.00).
Privacy may be a large word for a little fish, but Jessica discovers that privacy is what she craves. She is allowed to leave her school of fish for a secret grotto a short time each day. Jessica shares the location of her grotto with a friendly worm who is faced with the dilemma of whether to divulge his friend's secret when danger lurks in the deep.

Elephant King (Level II, 2-3) $110.00 (also available in Spanish, $100.00).
Different cultures view the need for privacy in different ways. This is the message in this tale of a young Indian elephant herder who befriends a wise hermit and must learn to decide between the competing values of community safety and vows of secrecy.

Marvin the Marvelous (Level III, 4-5) $125.00.
Young Marvin is a wonderful cartoonist who draws a comic strip about the heroic Marvin the Marvelous. Unfortunately, his loving family live in a crowded urban apartment that leaves little room for the privacy he needs to develop his talent. His troubles are compounded by the arrival of his grandmother. However, common creative interests bridge the generation gap as they work together to ensure the privacy space they both require.

RESPONSIBILITY:

Multimedia Kits:

The Squirrel Tree (Level I, K-1) $110.00.
Freddie and Susie Squirrel are introduced to the world beyond their snug tree home - and some of the responsibilities of life - in this story of an old-fashioned squirrel family. Constantly testing the waters they face unexpected dangers which help them examine choices involving responsibility.

The Zookeeper (Level II, 2-3) $110.00.
Everyone - including the animals - could tell that Martin, the new zookeeper, was goofing off on the job. The animals hold a meeting and decide to show him the error of his ways. He's a quick learner, and soon finds that at every step of his rising career there are new choices to make about responsibilities, and new enjoyment of the fruits of his labor. The negligence of his replacement teaches yet another lesson about responsibility.

Sharon Snoop (Level III, 4-5) $125.00.
Sharon's dream is to be a great detective like her idol Sherlock Holmes. With the aid of her trusty bloodhound Watson, she scours the neighborhood to hone her skills. She finds herself facing a dilemma when she has to choose between keeping a solemn promise to her friends and rescuing a lost child. The plot thickens when a young bully accidentally sets fire to the friend's clubhouse and blame has to be assigned.

AUTHORITY

Multimedia kits:

Mining Madness (Level IV, 5-7) $125.00.
A prospector hunting for gold discovers a much more precious metal: balonium. The resultant balonium rush brings people from all over the world with different expectations about the role of authority. When a council set up by the miners moves too slowly, vigilantes take over.

Soup to Nuts (Level V, 7-9) $155.00.
A community elects the "Panacia Party of Political Prestidigitation" which, true to its campaign promise, stops functioning. In an attempt to remedy the chaos that develops, the people elect a benevolent despot who will rule them firmly but gently. Although at first the despot seems to be the ideal choice, she begins to take advantage of the situation to increase her own wealth and power.

JUSTICE

Multimedia kits:

Sir Brian Bumble (Level IV, 5-7) $125.00.
Sir Brian is a good-hearted knight, but a terribly incompetent one. When the King must leave for battle, he decides it would be safer to leave Sir Brian in charge of the home front. However, he leaves a mentor in charge of instructing Sir Brian (and students) in the ways of justice.

Level V (Junior High) and Level VI (High School) use three different filmstrips to look at issues of distributive, corrective, and procedural justice.

Fig Trees (Level V, 7-9) (Distributive Justice) $155.00.
A young man is transported into a future time where all the benefits and burdens of society are distributed according to irrational criteria.

Trygnon Seven (Level V, 7-9) (Corrective Justice) $155.00.
In this space-age setting, students examine what would be the proper response in dealing with a space-ship Captain accused of crimes against humanity in an inter-planetary war.

Postal Zone (Level V, 7-9) (Procedural Justice) $155.00.
A man bemoans the fact that he does not live in the "good old west" when justice was swift and final. When he is transported back in time to a town that meters out "frontier justice" he finds himself falsely accused of a crime. This situation forcefully shows him how important due process is in ensuring a just society.

Multimedia kits:

A Sparagus Trip (Level IV, 5-7) $125.00.
When Nowall arrives on Earth from the planet Sparagus he is amazed to find Earthlings with only two arms, without the ability to read minds, and with a need for privacy. On his planet, Gwaaks live in glass houses, have their whereabouts monitored and seem to get along just fine. A clear case of culture shock.

Sledge Hammer (Level V, 7-9) $155.00.
This parody of the "Private Eye" movies centers around Juke Box Johnson, a jazz musician who writes a book about his life - and the lives of others he has known. The filmstrip raises questions of whether it is right to divulge information about others without their consent, and a variety of search and seizure issues.

RESPONSIBILITY

Multimedia kits:

Navajo Territory (Level IV, 5-6) $125.00.
Was Kit Carson justified in his actions toward the Navajo nation? This is one of several questions involving choices between competing responsibilities that are raised in this story that begins with a family camping trip to Canyon de Chelly, in the heart of Navajo country.

EZB4 (Level V, 7-9) $155.00.
EZB4 is a computerized, voice-activated robot capable of doing almost anything. Realizing that even a robot has limits and that delegating all responsibility has its costs as well as benefits, EZB4 is rebuilt to carry on helpful but not all-encompassing tasks. He becomes a community hero when he tackles a problem of water pollution successfully but finds that this new status creates new responsibility conflicts.

AUTHORITY:

Multimedia kits:

Soup to Nuts (Level V, 7-9) $155.00.
A community elects the "Panacia Party of Political Prestidigitation" which, true to its campaign promise, stops functioning. In an attempt to remedy the chaos that develops, the people elect a benevolent despot who will rule them firmly but gently. Although at first the despot seems to be the ideal choice, she begins to take advantage of the situation to increase her own wealth and power.

Antigone (Level VI, 10-12) $155.00.
What should one do when faced with conflicting rules decreed by different authorities? Should one follow the rules of religion or the rules of the state? This dilemma, faced by Antigone, is based on a famous Greek tragedy.

Authority (Level VI), 1990. Revised student and teacher books on the relationship between authority and power.

JUSTICE

Level V (Junior High) and Level VI (High School) use three different filmstrips to look at issues of distributive, corrective, and procedural justice.

Fig Trees (Level V, 7-9) (Distributive Justice) $155.00.
A young man is transported into a future time when all the benefits and burdens of society are distributed according to irrational criteria.

Trygnon Seven (Level V, 7-9) (Corrective Justice) $155.00.
In this space-age setting, students examine what would be proper response in dealing with a space-ship Captain accused of crimes against humanity in an inter-planetary war.

Postal Zone (Level V, 7-9) (Procedural Justice) $155.00.
A man bemoans the fact that he does not live in the "good old west" when justice was swift and final. When he is transported back in time to a town that metes out "frontier justice" he finds himself falsely accused of a crime. This situation forcefully shows him how important due process is in ensuring a just society.

Justice (Level VI), 1990. Revised student and teacher books on the concepts of distributive, corrective and procedural justice.

Crashablanca (Level VI, 10-12) (Distributive Justice) $155.00
"Casablanca" revisited, with some major changes: The issue is who should receive a much coveted airline pass that will enable a person to leave this dreary place.

The Tomb (Level VI, 10-12) (Corrective Justice) $155.00
In an attempt to save important artifacts for scientific purposes, an archaeologist takes them forcibly from a man seeking to use them in his circus sideshow. Students are asked to decide what should be done to correct this situation.

Sacco and Vanzetti (Level VI, 10-12) (Procedural Justice) $155.00.
This dramatization of a famous trial in American history is not concerned with the guilt or innocence of the accused, but with the procedure followed to make that decision.

PRIVACY:

Multimedia kits:

Sledge Hammer (Level V, 7-9) $155.00.
This parody of the "Private Eye" movies centers around Juke Box Johnson, a jazz musician who writes a book about his life - and the lives of others he has known. The filmstrip raises questions of whether it is right to divulge information about others without their consent, and a variety of search and seizure issues.

Project Tomorrow (Level VI, 10-12) $155.00.
Dr. Carmen Villa is working to develop a cloning machine that can duplicate scarce resources. She is overjoyed when she is invited to work at a secret institute, hoping it will offer her the privacy she needs in her work. Unfortunately, it also proves very restricting. Carmen is forced to examine the costs and benefits of privacy in life.

RESPONSIBILITY

Multimedia kits:

EZB4 (Level V, 7-9) $155.00.
EZB4 is a computerized, voice-activated robot capable of doing almost anything. Realizing that even a robot has limits and that delegating all responsibility has its costs as well as benefits, EZB4 is rebuilt to carry on helpful but not all-encompassing tasks. He becomes a community hero when he tackles a problem of water pollution successfully but finds that this new status creates new responsibility conflicts.

Highway to Life (Level VI, 10-12) $155.00.
A young woman rises through the ranks in a paint factory to a position of responsibility in management. This spoof of a soap opera raises the perennial question: can responsibility and happiness co-exist?

Banks and Smallwood v. Columbia Properties, Baldwin and Reese. Mr. Banks and Ms. Smallwood allege that by their refusal to rent to them, the policies of Columbia Properties and the practices of its employees have discriminated against them on the basis of marital status and physical handicap. From the 1980 mock trial competition.

Dana Barr v. Kitt Zuff, Peter DeLacy, 1987. Can a guard at the State Correctional Institution be fined for testing positive to the AIDS antibody blood test? Developed by the National Institute for Citizen Education in the Law, this case was adapted for the 1988 high school mock trial competition by Richard Sanders.

Elyse Roberts v. Potomic County, DC Street Law Project. A sexual discrimination case, used in the 1990 mock trial competition.

Ex parte Bryant. An adoption case, from the 1979 mock trial competition.

Hudson v. Oregonian, Bates and Davis, From the 1981 Mock Trial Competition. Do the best interests of a child and a father's right to custody outweigh a reporter's and newspaper's right to maintain the confidentiality of their sources?

Kaufman v. Rolling Homeowners Assoc. A case in which plaintiff seeks court declaration null and void on "adults only" provision in a condominium deed as violation of The Oregon Civil Rights Act.

KLRE Mock Trial Training Manual (to be used in conjunction with KLRE Mock Trial Video and Martha Winstead trial).

Martha Winstead v. Church of the New Family. Civil case involving a mother's attempt to regain her son from a cult-like church that she alleges is controlling his body and mind. Issues of religion, deprogramming rights, and responsibilities of parents and children over the age of majority. (Use KLRE tape and manual for this trial.)

People v. Stevens. A criminal case involving assault with a deadly weapon taking place at a video arcade.

Radcliffe v. Immigration and Naturalization Service. From the 1986 mock trial competition. Should political asylum be granted to the minor child of a foreign student who is returning to his home country after studying in Oregon for two years, or should the minor child be deported against his/her will?

Ray v. Ray. From the 1984 mock trial competition. A divorce case.

State of Oregon v. Martha Monroe. Martha Monroe killed her husband and then reported it to the police. Now she claims to be innocent because she suffers from battered wife syndrome. From the 1989 statewide mock trial competition.

State v. Ballard. A hit and run criminal case involving teenage drinking and driving. Trial takes place in Oregon and uses the new Oregon .08 alcohol percentage level for intoxication law.

State v. Larson. Criminal case involving drug usage and the sale of drugs. A sense of responsibility as citizens versus a commitment to peers will be explored.

Taylor v. Lance Memorial Hospital, Miller and Dillon. From the 1982 mock trial competition. Mr. Taylor has brought suit alleging that he was illegally discriminated against because of his sex.

United States v. Fran O'Leary, George Castello, 1986. The National Bicentennial Mock Trial Program case for 1987. Set in 1800, Irish-born newspaper editor Fran O'Leary is charged with criminal violation of the Sedition Act "in that O'Leary wrote ... scandalous and malicious writings against President Adams; ... sought to excite the people and stir up pro-French sedition, thereby endangering the domestic and national security of the United States.

Vickers v. Hearst. From the 1983 mock trial competition. Can a party host be held liable for damages caused by a guest to whom alcoholic beverages were served?

Street Law Mock Trial Manual, National Institute for Citizen Education in the Law, 1984. This guide to mock trials offers detailed instructions for organizing and conducting mock trials.
